Recognizing Jesus

Do You Lack FAITH?

July 7, 2024

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - Ezekiel 2:2-5: God empowers Ezekiel to speak to rebellious Israel, ensuring that whether or not they listen, they will recognize the presence of a prophet among them.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 123: R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy. We continually look to the Lord for mercy, enduring scorn and arrogance from others, just as servants watch their masters, waiting for compassion.

Second Reading - 2 Corinthians 12:7-10: Paul embraces his weaknesses and hardships, seeing them as opportunities for Christ's power to shine, affirming that divine strength is perfected in human weakness.

Gospel - Mark 6:1-6: Jesus visits Nazareth, where he teaches in the synagogue, but the people reject him, commenting on his lack of status as a local carpenter's son. Jesus is amazed by their lack of faith, and he is only able to heal a few sick people because of their unbelief.

JESUS DOES LOOK DIFFERENT
BUT HE IS HERE!

Like Jesus's fellow villagers, we risk not recognizing him. An abstract and distant god who doesn't get himself involved in situations is more comfortable. God incarnated Himself: humble, tender, hidden, drawing near to us, living the normality of our daily life. – Pope Francis

It can be easy to discount the people whom we know the best. They are so familiar to us that we simply may take them for granted. Take a moment and think about the people in your life: what are their gifts? How do they gift you with their love and care? Do you truly appreciate them? Do you appreciate their gifts and talents? Do you let them know how important they are to you?

Today make time to give thanks for the many people who love and care about you! In some small way, let them know how grateful you are to have them in your life!
