AND REST

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - Jeremiah 23:1-6: The LORD condemns leaders who mislead His flock and promises to personally restore and protect them with just and wise leadership, ensuring their safety and growth.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 23: R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. I am guided by the Lord and need nothing more. He comforts and protects me always, and I will dwell with Him forever.

Second Reading - Ephesians 2:13-18: Christ has made us one by His sacrifice, breaking down barriers and granting us all access to the Father, ensuring peace among us.

Gospel - Mark 6:30-34: Jesus and the apostles retreat for rest, but a large crowd follows. Seeing their need, Jesus compassionately teaches them, recognizing their guidance like sheep without a shepherd.

Prayer Requests:

Please Pray For: Katie Giangrande; MaryJo Kendrot; Chris Brosi; Edythe Jankowski; Jan Edward Skrzypek; Jim Hunter; Juan Carlos Romay; Billy Chicanowicz; Lisa Eastwood; Antoni Komorowski; Stanislaw Malon; Mary Berdinka; PEACE; Lauren Uribe; Laurie Krom; Billy Hickox; Helen Puric; Our Youth; the unemployed; Our Country; end of abortion; priests & deacons.

His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

This Sunday highlights the need for rest and prayer in our busy lives to connect with God. We all get tired and weary from work and from problems. The invitation of Jesus to “rest for a while” is to recharge not only our body but our spirit and thus preserve our sanity. By setting a regular prayer time we can deepen our relationship with God.

However, to rest for a while means it is a temporary thing. - It means to retreat but not to give up. Jesus knew how to balance His schedule. He made Himself available to people who are in need. Jesus’ compassion is a model for us. He sees the needs of the people and responds with love.

Dear Lord, thank You for Your constant care and guidance. Help us to trust and to follow You faithfully. Unite us in Christ and fill our hearts with peace. Teach us to show compassion to others, just as Jesus did. Amen.
